- In case of slippage/ leakage of UPSI designated persons shall inform the Compliance Officer and shall take responsible measures to put a stop on further spreading of such UPSI.

3. Structured Digital Database (“SDD”)

The Board of Directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the name of such persons with whom the information is shared as above along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The board of directors or head(s) of the organisation of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings

4. Trading when in possession of UPSI

No Designated Person/Insider shall-

- a. either on his behalf or on behalf of any other person, trade in securities of the Company when in the possession of any unpublished price sensitive information.

However, Trade pursuant to a “Trading Plan” set up in accordance with Regulation 5 of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 may be permitted subject to the approval of Compliance Officer and public disclosure of it by the Compliance Officer.

- b. communicate, counsel or procure, directly or indirectly access to any unpublished price sensitive information to any person. However, nothing in these restrictions shall apply in case of any communication required in ordinary course of business.

No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to the Company or Securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Explanation: The term ‘legitimate purpose’ shall include but not be limited to sharing of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of this policy or the SEBI Regulations.

Any person in receipt of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “Insider” for the purposes of this policy and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with this policy.

5. Trading Restrictions

All the Designated Persons/Insiders shall be subject to the trading restrictions as enumerated below:

a. Trading window

The period prior to declaration of any price sensitive information is particularly sensitive for transaction in Company’s securities. During such times all the designated persons and their immediate relatives will have to forgo the opportunity of trading in Company’s securities.

Therefore, all the Designated Persons and their immediate relative shall not deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is closed.

b. Events for closure of trading window

The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed at the time of :

- (i) Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually);
- (ii) Declaration of dividends (interim and final);
- (iii) Issue of Securities by way of public / right / bonus etc;
- (iv) Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects;
- (v) Change in Capital Structure of the Company;
- (vi) Amalgamations, Mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, de-listings, disposal and expansion of business and such other transactions;

- (v) Changes in Key Managerial Personnel;
 - (vi) Disposal of whole or substantially whole of the undertaking;
 - (vii) any information which, if disclosed, in the opinion of the person disclosing the same is likely to materially effect the price of the securities.
- c. The period of closure of trading window for declaration of financial results shall be effective from the end of every quarter up to 48 hours after the public announcement of results.
 - d. Additionally, the trading window shall be closed for designated persons if they are in access of UPSI in relation to events referred in 4(b) for such period as determined by Compliance Officer and open after 48 hours of the information referred to in 4(b) is made public i.e. intimated to the Stock Exchange.
 - e. The period of closure of trading window shall be effective from the date on which the Company sends intimation to the Stock Exchange advising the date of the Board Meeting up to 48 hours after the Price Sensitive Information is submitted to the Stock Exchange.
 - f. The Trading Window shall be re-opened after 48 hours of the information referred to in 4(b) is made public i.e. intimated to the Stock Exchange.
 - g. All Insiders/Designated Persons/Fiduciary of the company shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the company's securities during the periods when trading window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
 - h. It shall be the responsibility of the Designated Persons to advise their immediate relatives regarding trading window closures.
 - i. All communication regarding the closing and opening of the trading window will be sent by e-mail to the Designated Employees and will also be notified to the Stock Exchanges and uploaded on the Company's website. However, irrespective of whether such communication is received, the Designated Persons governed by this Code should mandatorily verify whether the trading window is open before undertaking any transactions in respect of the Company's Securities. Non receipt of communication regarding closure of trading window will not justify a transaction done during the period when the trading window was closed.
 - j. The trading window restrictions mentioned above shall not apply in respect of:
 - The transaction is an off-market inter se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Code of Conduct for Fair Disclosure of UPSI and both the parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that the off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the Compliance Officer within two working days. Further, the Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchanges within two trading days from receipt of disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- The transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of Code of Conduct for Fair Disclosure of UPSI and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
- The transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- Exercise of Options under Employee Stock Option Scheme(s). However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs, if any, shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.
- in the case of non-individual insiders:
 - a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and
 - b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
- The trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with para 6 of this Code
- Transactions in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to compliance with the respective regulations made by SEBI;
- pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations;
- Transactions such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to right issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.
- Issue of non-Convertible securities

6. Trading Plans

1. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
2. Such trading plan shall:
 - i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - ii. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - iii. set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - a) either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - b) nature of the trade;
 - c) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - d) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price
 - iv. not entail trading in securities for abuse.

Explanation:

- (i) While the parameters in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall be mandatorily mentioned for each trade, the parameter in sub-clause (d) shall be optional.
- (ii) The price limit in sub-clause (iv) shall be rounded off to the nearest numeral.
- (iii) Insider may make adjustments, with the approval of the compliance officer, in the number of securities and price limit in the event of corporate actions related to bonus issue and stock split occurring after the approval of trading plan and the same shall be notified on the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.

3. The compliance officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

4. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation

Provided further that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (v) of sub-point 2 above, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

Explanation: In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan due to either reasons enumerated in sub-regulation 4 or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:

(i) The insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of trading plan to the compliance officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any.

(ii) Upon receipt of information from the insider, the compliance officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not.

(iii) The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the compliance officer on the same day to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

(iv) In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the compliance officer shall take action as per the Code of Conduct.]

5. The Compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two working days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

7. Pre-clearance of trades

- a. Any designated person of the company who intend to deal in the securities of the company (directly or indirectly (including their immediate relatives)) exceeding the market price of Rs. 10,00,000/- in a calendar quarter, either in a single trade or series of trade in a calendar quarter shall require pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in Form A.
